

ŽILVINAS VAREIKIS

The Nature of Intercultural Philosophy and Relations with Other Disciplines of Philosophy

Summary

There are related methodological and theoretical attitudes of an intercultural philosophy with the comparative thinking and the universal logic in the article. It has been discussed the program of intercultural philosophy which is under consideration upon its aims and the perspective. The content of the intercultural philosophy – the explication of diverse sociocultural contexts, an approach to the interdisciplinarity – is based on the assimilation of the fundamental principles of polylogue which are debated in the paper. The essence of it – the consideration on the problematic international metaethical and metaphysical implications.

Keywords: intercultural philosophy, comparative philosophy, polylogue, metaethics, intercultural comparison.